The information in this brochure is provided to identify the steps and patterns required to take the DVIDA student exams plus off syllabus variations

The DVIDA student exams are offered to social dancers off all ages and backgrounds in order to assess and critique the dancer's skill level and ability.

DVIDA stands for Dance Vision International Dance Association, and is headquartered in Las Vegas, NV. It is an American institution dedicated to ballroom dancing in North America, and also offers certifications for dance instructors.

The North Carolina Ballroom Teachers College uses DVIDA
